ABOUT YOUR EVALUATION: Your appointment is to determine your candidacy for refractive procedures. Although the comprehensive evaluation will determine your prescription as well as your overall ocular health, this evaluation cannot be billed through your insurance company. Because the exam involves measurements specifically for refractive surgery, we will not be able to provide you with a prescription for glasses or contact lenses.

HIPAA CONSENT FORM

Our Notice of Privacy Practices provides information about our use of a patient's protected health information. The Notice contains a Patient Rights section describing your rights under the law. Patients have the right to access, inspect and copy protected health care information used to make decisions about them.

The Practice will only include information used to make decisions about the patient. This includes medical records, but does not include psychotherapy notes. Under some circumstances, such as increased risk of harm or injury, the Practice may withhold the requested information. The Privacy Officer of this Practice will evaluate this Request and notify the patient of our decision within fifteen (15) days of this Request. If the Request is approved, the Practice will provide the information within thirty (30) days or within sixty (60) days if such an extension is necessary. Reasonable costs will be charged for the Request. Costs will be submitted to the patient upon approval of the Request. The Practice may provide a summary of the requested information if you are agreeable. The Practice provides this form to comply with the Health Insurance Portability and Accountability Act of 1996 (HIPPA), including subsequent modifications to the HIPPA Privacy, Security, Enforcement, and Breach Notification Rules under the Health Information Technology for Economic and Clinical Health Act and the Omnibus Final Rule.

The patient understands that:

- Protected health information may be disclosed or used for treatment, payment or healthcare operations.
- The Practice has a Notice of Privacy Practices and that the patient has the opportunity to review this Notice.
- The Practice reserves the right to change the Notice of Privacy Policies.
- The patient has the right to restrict the uses of their information, but the Practice does not have to agree to those restrictions.
- The patient may revoke this Consent in writing at any time and all future disclosures will then cease.
- The Practice may condition treatment upon the execution of this Consent.

SUMMARY OF PRIVACY PRACTICES

This summary of our privacy practices contains a condensed version of our Notice of Privacy Practices. Our full-length Notice is available in our office.

Date of last revision: September 23, 2013 Effective Date: Immediately

THIS NOTICE DESCRIBES HOW MEDICAL INFORMATION ABOUT YOU MAY BE USED AND DISCLOSED AND HOW YOU CAN GET ACCESS TO THIS INFORMATION. PLEASE REVIEW IT CAREFULLY.

We understand that your medical information is personal to you, and we are committed to protecting the information about you. As our patient, we create medical records about your health, our care for you, and the services and/or items we provide to you as our patient. By law, we are required to make sure that your protected health information is kept private.

How will we use or disclose your information? Here are a few examples:

- For medical treatment
- To obtain payment for services
- In emergency situations
- For appointment and patient recall reminders
- To run our Practice more efficiently and ensure all our patients receive quality care
- For research
- To avert a serious threat to health or safety
- For organ and tissue donation
- For workers' compensation programs
- In response to certain request arising out of lawsuits or other disputes

If you believe your privacy rights have been violated, you may file a complaint with the Practice or with the Secretary of the Department of Health and Human Services. To file a complaint with the Practice, contact our Office Manager. All complaints must be submitted in writing. You will not be penalized for filing a complaint.

You have certain rights regarding the information we maintain about you. These rights include:

- The right to inspect and copy your records
- The right to amend
- The right to an accounting of disclosures
- The right to an electronic copy of electronic medical records
- The right to request restrictions
- The right to a paper copy of this notice
- The right to request confidential communications
- The right to get a notice of a breach
- The right to restrict the disclosure to a health plan for those services for which you have paid out of pocket

I acknowledge that I have been given access to, and/or received a copy of the Providers Notice of Privacy Practices with the effective date of September 23, 2013.

The information contained in this document is accurate to the best of my knowledge. Signing this also serves as your authorization for your patient release form on page 2.
